Hyannis, Massachusetts

Dear Dick:

The Commodore and Trustees of the Hyannis Yacht Club have asked me, on behalf of the members of the Club and themselves, to express our thanks and appreciation to you for conducting our recent Auction Sale.

Because of your extensive experience, personality, salesmanship and a lot of hard work, you were able to parlay the many items, along with some odds and ends of questionable marketability, into a profit of $521.10 for the Yacht Club.

This money will be used to renovate the lower deck of the Clubhouse and convert it into first class quarters. Although this might be a long term project, we hope you will find it gratifying to know that it was largely through your efforts that funds for this program became available.

It is because of members, like yourself, who are willing to give unstintingly of their time and effort when called upon to do so, that the Hyannis Yacht Club will continue to prosper.

Thank you, Dick, for a job well done.

Sincerely yours,

A. Joseph Boylan
